Community Realty Management Announces Senior Vice President Suzanne Sigmund

Pleasantville, NJ, January 17, 2014 – Community Realty Management (CRM), a full-service real estate management organization, announced today the promotion of Suzanne Sigmund, CPM®, HCCP® of Glassboro, NJ to the position of senior vice president. In this role, Sigmund will work closely with CRM’s leadership team to oversee all property management-related strategies for the organization’s diverse portfolio of properties across the United States.

“Suzanne is a consummate professional with immense knowledge of property management and today’s real estate landscape,” states Michael Simmons, president of CRM. “She has been with Community Realty Management for 20 years, and in that time has demonstrated a sincere dedication to our partners and properties. She is poised to make an immediate impact on our business, offering expert oversight on property management and supporting the interests of our clients, residents, local communities and CRM team members.”

Sigmund began her career with CRM in 1994 as a regional manager, and was subsequently promoted to executive property manager with responsibility for over 1400 units located throughout Northeastern PA. She was then promoted to vice president of occupancy and compliance, and has served as the company’s primary trainer and Fair Housing officer while supervising the management of Compliance Department personnel.

Sigmund is a past president of the Central PA Chapter of the Institute of Real Estate Management (IREM) and served as president of the PA / DE Affordable Housing Management Association in 2010 and 2011. She holds the prestigious Certified Property Manager® designation from IREM, the National Affordable Housing Professional Executive® designation from NAHMA and the Housing Credit Certified Professional® designation from the National Association of Home Builders.

“This is a very rewarding and exciting opportunity for me,” says Sigmund. “Community Realty Management makes every effort to create a culture of continual learning and growth for employees and maintains a dedication to providing personal and professional management services to its client base. This environment is what makes being part of CRM very special.”
